

31st Pottery Fair in Kunštát, Czech Republic

16.-17. September 2023

Deadline May 15, 2023

Please complete the application carefully.

Participation will be confirmed only to potters and ceramicists who will send the completed application form including the attachments within the deadline and who are interested in taking part in both selling days (please don't apply if you don't fulfill those criteria, other craftsmen and traders cannot participate)

The organizers reserve their right to select among the applicants. Our main aim is to present quality and diversity of ceramics within the given space.

NOTICE TO ALL

Every interested applicant should enclose 3 high-quality photographs (minimum 9x13 cm) of their current work which they would like to present at the fair. These must be included in the application. Vendors with their own stall should also attach a photograph of the stall. The maximum length is 3 m. We will only rent a limited number of the city stalls on King George Square. The center of this square will be designated for the construction of your own 3x3 m tents (white colour only).

Any stalls beyond the boundaries of the square will not be allowed – sales beyond allocated area are completely banned.

Selected participants will receive a confirmation email, instructions of payment and detailed information about the Fair by the end of June. The fee is not refundable.
